LIFE IS A HOLDUP

Man's Fight Against Man Curse of Race, Declares "Mother" Mary Jones.

CONTROL OF TOOLS CONFLICT

Impassioned Lecture Under Auspices of Socialists Given at the Y. M. C. A.

"Mother" Mary Jones declares life in the present day is a game of holdup more desperately played with each succeeding year. One man trying to defeat the aims of his neighbor-that religion. is the real curse of the human race But the conflict of the century is be tween the classes, wealth and labor, Mrs. Jones declared, and it centers about control of the tools that the worker operates, the tools that he made, but does not own, the tools that he operates that others into whose faces he may never have looked may live on in luxury and idleness.

"Mother" Jones calls a spade : spade. She admits that possibly she oversteps the proprieties occasionally n her platform addresses, but she sincere. If she says a harsh thing having done so. She means every Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thor- word she utters. She puts fervor into knew nothing about the suffering of She talks to the men as though she were one of them.
